

ASSIGNMENT OF EXPECTANCY

The undersigned, _____ (the "Assignor"), has a claim for damages arising from that certain lawsuit captioned Kalima, et al, v. State, et al. filed in the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, State of Hawaii in CIVIL NO. 99-4771-12 VLC (hereinafter "Civil Matter").

Should Assignor die before receiving all of Assignor's interests and proceeds from the Civil Matter, Assignor wishes to assign any and all of Assignor's expected/vested/adjudicated proceeds from the Civil Matter to _____, effective upon the death or incapacity of the Assignor. This is intended to help avoid probate complications and to simplify estate administration, if necessary.

Assignor hereby transfers and assigns to _____, (the "Assignee"), all of the Assignor's right, title and interests in and to any and all claims Assignor may have arising out of said Civil Matter, effective upon Assignor's death. This assignment shall include all other rights, remedies, defenses and benefits now or hereafter available to the Assignor with respect to the Civil Matter, including the right in the Assignee and the Assignee's successors, successors-in-trust and assigns to substitute as Plaintiff in said cases and to proceed in the same way that the Assignor could do.
